SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate, under the guidance and supervision of the probation officer, in a substance abuse treatment program which may include testing, outpatient counseling, and residential treatment. Further, the defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of treatment.
2. Supervised release is to be administered by the district where the defendant is a legal resident and/or the district where a suitable release plan has been developed.
3. The probation officer will provide state officials with all information required under any sexual predator and sexual offender notification and registration statutes and may direct the defendant to report to these agencies personally for required additional processing, such as an interview and assessment, photographing, fingerprinting, polygraph testing, and DNA collection.
4. The defendant shall participate in mental health counseling specializing in sexual offender treatment under the guidance and supervision of the probation officer and abide by the rules, requirements, and conditions of the treatment program, including submitting to polygraph testing to aid in the treatment and supervision process. The results of the polygraph examinations may not be used as evidence in Court to prove that a violation of community supervision has occurred but may be used for investigative purposes. The information may also be considered in a hearing to modify release conditions. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of such treatment and polygraphs based on his ability to pay. Further, the defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of treatment and submit to testing.
5. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, subscribe, view, listen to, or use any media forms containing pornographic images or sexually oriented materials including but not limited to written, audio, and visual depictions, such as pornographic books, magazines, literature, videos, CD's, DVD's, digital media, or photographs. This includes materials containing "sexually explicit conduct" as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2).
6. The defendant shall have no direct contact with minors (under age 18) without the written approval of the probation officer and shall refrain from entering into any area where children frequently congregate including, but not limited to, schools, daycare centers, theme parks, theaters, and playgrounds.
7. The defendant may see his children only in the presence of another adult.
8. Placement in a residential re-entry center is not recommended due to the nature of the offenses in the defendant's criminal history.
